Mission

The AIDS Committee of Toronto (ACT) develops and delivers innovative programs and services that promote the dignity, health and well-being of individuals and communities living with, affected by and at risk for HIV/AIDS.

Vision

Working together to achieve a world without AIDS.

Core Values*Meaningful Involvement of People with HIV/AIDS (MIPA)*

We are committed to the meaningful involvement of people living with HIV/AIDS at all levels of the organization.

Equity and Access

We value diversity, and the distinct needs and contributions of our program and service users, volunteers, staff and supporters.

Self-determination

We are committed to working with individuals and communities to enable them to take an active role in determining, planning and directing their health, care and well-being.

Respect

We are committed to treating each of our staff, volunteers, service users and community partners with respect.

Strengths-based approach

We honour and recognize the enormous amount of work that we, our partners, and our communities have contributed to the fight against HIV/AIDS. We honour and recognize the resiliency of those communities that have been deeply affected by HIV/AIDS in Toronto.

Core Commitments

- Be accountable to the communities with whom we work, our funding partners, and our supporters.
- Engage with our communities for input, to share information and to partner in program delivery.
- Ensure our services demonstrate our professionalism and expertise.
- Foster an environment of learning and inquiry.
- Influence public policy that benefits the communities we serve.
- Be a change agent, a catalyst and incubator of ideas when developing programming and services that advance our vision and mission.
- Challenge ourselves to be creative, innovative and bold.
